SECTION III: NARRATIVEBILL SUMMARY

Synopsis: Throughout the bill, the language used to describe the child victim's age is changed from "less than" to "younger than".

Section E is now specific to negligent child abuse. This section could also be construed as more grammatically correct and reads, "...for a second or subsequent offense," instead of "...for second and subsequent offenses,"

Section G now reads, "A person who commits intentional abuse of a child that does not result in the child's death or great bodily harm is, for a first offense, guilty of a second degree felony and, for a second or subsequent offense, is guilty of a first degree felony. If the abuse results in great bodily harm to the child, the person is guilty of a first degree felony."

The remaining sections, H through L, are reordered.
